

SNOW GOOSE FESTIVAL

December 2019

Dear Friend,

Millions of waterfowl migrating along the Pacific Flyway call the Northern Sacramento Valley their home during the winter months.

Here in Chico and the surrounding communities, we will celebrate this magnificent spectacle of nature with the 21st Annual Snow Goose Festival of the Pacific Flyway, January 22 – 26, 2020. A fun and educational event, the Snow Goose Festival is one of the premier birding and nature festivals in Northern California. Our mission is to increase public awareness, understanding, appreciation and conservation of the Sacramento Valley's diverse wildlife and unique habitats.

Highlights of the festival include:

- Wildlife Art Exhibit and Reception at the Museum of Northern California Art (MONCA)
- Over 80 field trips, tours and educational workshops
- Naturalist presentations and free activities for the entire family at the Masonic Hall
- Saturday night Banquet and Silent Auction, with Karen Amstutz as our Keynote Speaker - "The Gift of Watching Birds."

Coordinated by many volunteers, this festival is funded by event fees, donations and proceeds from the Silent Auction at Saturday night's banquet. We are asking for your support through your tax-deductible donation to the Silent Auction, for which you will receive recognition at the auction table and acknowledgement in the banquet programs.

A silent auction committee member will be following up with you by phone or in person within the next few weeks. Please contact Pat DelFrate at 591-0306 or pattydel@gmail.com with questions regarding the auction or if you need assistance with your donation. Donations may also be dropped off at the Snow Goose office at 635 Flume Street, or contact us via email at info@snowgoosefestival.org or by calling (530) 592-9092.

Thank you for your consideration in supporting this worthwhile community event, and we look forward to working with you to make this the best Snow Goose Festival to date. We invite you to visit our web site at www.snowgoosefestival.org for more festival information.

Gratefully,

2020 Silent Auction Committee

Tax ID # 68-0015173